The spirit of Karatsu and a playful heart

Playfulness is a central theme in Fujinoki Dohei's work. "Living as one with nature is my philosophy. The feeling of the work changes depending on my mood, so I try to work as closely to my natural self as possible." As if evidencing these words, the area around the studio and kiln abounds with nature, and the pottery work is alive with a playful spirit.

Dohei san feels that preserving the "spirit of Karatsu" is very important. He loves Karatsu ware, has studied it extensively, and his spirit resides in it. He expresses through his clay. "I want to bring out the natural aspect and colors of the clay.", he says. His lifestyle and spirit are committed to Karatsu ware.
